THE CONTEST IS CLOSE.

The Official Returns Are Coming in Very Slowly.

PROTESTS IN CLOSE COUNTIES.

Proposed Now To Prevent if Possible The Issuing of Certificates To Certain Candidates.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 5.—The contest for the control of the Ohio Legislature is likely to be carried into the courts for settlement.

The official returns of about one-fourth of eighty-eight counties have been received by the Secretary of State. No returns of close counties. Protests have been made, and it is proposed now to prevent the issue of certificates of election to certain legislative candidates if the courts so order.

THE IMPERIAL NAWARB.

The Grand Padishaw and all the Little Jou-Jous.

The Dramatic Order of the Knights of Khorassan came in from Charlotte in a special car attached to the noon train today.

There were twenty-five members of the order aboard. They were on their way to Winston to initiate an almost equally large number into the secretaries of the order there. After the new members have gone through the dark oracles of initiation, a grand banquet will be served at the Phoenix.

The Knights of Khorassan occupy the same relation to the Knights of Pythias as the Mystic Shrine does to Masonry. D. F. Summey is the Imperial Mawarb of the Charlotte order. The other members passing through this morning who occupy high positions in the mystic kingdom are E. L. Martin; J. B. Hart; Walter Scott; J. R. Van Ness; Earle Causland; C. A. Blair; James Northey; Thos. Griffith and S. F. King.

Mr. R. I. Katz had a truck of decorated canes awaiting the arrival of the Knights at the depot today. These beautiful ribbons of many colors will no doubt be dyed crimson before they are through with the Winston boys.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

A new house is going up on West Bragg street.

John Finlator and his sister, Miss Ethel, are in Winston today.

W. J. Holt, the well known manufacturer of Burlington is in the city.

W. H. Watkins, of Ramseur, secretary and treasurer of the Columbia Manufacturing Company, was in the city today.

Dr. J. L. Spainhour, of Lenoir, one of the directors of the Normal and Industrial College, is in the city in the interest of this institution.

It is not often that you can get candy the same day it is made which is guaranteed by a reliable man to be absolutely pure. Read what Andrews says about taffy today.

We are glad to see the improvement of the street at the courthouse square. Constant traffic had caused depressions which filled with water at every rain. The stones are being raised, thus avoiding this trouble.

Col. and Mrs. A. H. Leftwich, so pleasantly remembered here, are arranging to make Greensboro their home soon again. They will occupy their old home on Church street. For the present Mrs. Leftwich is at Mrs. Dick's on Church. Col. Leftwich is expected tomorrow.

Crocker Has a Cold.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 5.—Richard Crocker has contracted a severe cold which has settled on his lungs and he is threatened with pneumonia. He is confined to his room at Murray Hill Hotel. His health has not been the best for some time.

To Join The Procession.

Mr. W. E. Lewis went downtown Winston this morning, partly on business and partly to see the fair. He carried his wheel which was beautifully decorated in red, white and blue, and will join the bicycle parade this afternoon.

A REAL ROMANCE.

Chatham County and New York Making Love.

In this morning's News and Observer we find a pretty little romance about a wealthy Chatham county farmer and his novel courtship with a pretty New Yorker.

The farmer is James Gilliam, a handsome fellow about 45, who owns and operates a model farm near Pittsboro. Some months ago he advertised as follows:

"GENTLEMAN, forty, of good family character, reputation, appearance, fond of home and its moral influence, man of means, desires to correspond with a lady about 25, medium size, good looking, refined and honorable; matrimony."

In reply to this several answers came—some well-written, some scampily legible; some couched in well-turned phrases, some ungrammatical and badly spelled. Of them all, that written by Miss Downs, of New York, most satisfied Jim Gilliam's ideal, and pleased his fancy. He answered the letter at once. Then another came and another, and another; and finally there was one with a photograph in it.

Thus matters progressed until yesterday Miss Downs arrived at Moncure and was met by Mr. Gilliam and together they drove out to the farm to look things over. The prospective groom had paid Miss Downs' expenses from New York and in the event they don't like each other he is to pay her expenses back home.

Now there were reasons—nice, conventional reasons—why Mr. Gilliam should go slowly in this matter of joining their destinies for life. Younger heads and warmer hearts would have acted differently, of course. They would have said: "I love you, and you love me—how can anything else matter?"

And there would have been a marriage on the spot. But in this case the man is 45 and the woman 25. The man has two married children and four others at home, their future must be consulted. The woman had been reared in a city and perhaps she might not like the country and the farm life. Then, again, they had both fallen in love with pictures, shadows, and they might not like the substance so well.

"Better settle these things before hand," wrote the woman two weeks ago. "Better see one another now, go over the whole situation and then decide. After that there can be no heart-burnings, no recrimination, no charges of having been deceived."

As, in case of marriage, they must live in North Carolina, on Mr. Gilliam's farm, he suggested that Miss Downs come down, look it and its owner over, and then decide whether or not she would take them for better or worse, for life or death.

A telegram from Moncure yesterday afternoon said it was learned from Pittsboro that the matter would be settled last night, and the marriage would take place then or never.

Mr. Gilliam is quite a good-looking man, tall and muscular, with just a little gray in his hair. Though a farmer, he dresses well, and is a man of considerable education. Miss Downs is quite good-looking, weighs 120 pounds, and speaks with a charming Yankee accent.

"The Burglar."

Gus Thomas' clever play, "The Burglar," which held the boards at the Madison Square Theatre, New York, and made a most emphatic hit, has been secured. The play is one of absorbing interest, and the opening scene is laid in the home of opulence, showing the daily intercourse between the united members of a refined family and only marred by the young husband's too frequent absence. Into this peaceful existence a thunder-clap falls, in the shape of the discovery that the husband's mysterious disappearance has developed into the knowledge by some of the household members of a dual life on his part. He is at one and the same time a reputable member of society and a famous burglar. To avoid discovery and the shame coming to his wife's knowledge, he is permitted to escape, and eventually comes the news of his death. The wife and mother, under this belief, marries again when it is discovered too late, the news was false, and that the burglar still lives and is intent upon a series of house-breaking crimes. At one of these times he unconsciously enters the home of his former wife. A series of dramatic episodes swaying the emotions in his recognition and pathetic parting after manifold explanations. The play is excellently mounted and performed by a fine company under the management of A. Q. Scammon with Horace Mitchell as William Lewis, "The Burglar."

J. W. Prather, a prominent clothing merchant of Mt. Airy is registered at the Benbow.

A HAND TO HAND STRUGGLE

Sitting Began at Seven-Thirty Last Night.

FIERCE DISORDER PREVAILED.

The Cloture Scheme Finally Passed Amid Deafening Cheers and Pandemonium Reigned.

By Cable To THE TELEGRAM.

Vienna, Nov. 5.—Sitting Reichsrath which began at 7:30 last evening continued until the middle of this morning. Fierce disorder prevailed throughout the night.

Cloture repeats which were made with the object of putting the debate to an end on the Austria-Hungarian compromise evoked a fresh tumult, led as before by banging the lid of his desk. He kept up the din for some time when several deputies tried to wrench the lid from him. A hand to hand struggle ensued.

The Cloture scheme finally passed amid deafening cheers and uproar. The deputies banged desks and shouted at the top of their voices. The sitting closed at ten o'clock this morning when the compromise was referred to the Budget committee.

The sitting was a veritable pandemonium from beginning to end. The example of Reichsrath was followed by the German naturalists at the meeting held by them after adjournment. Chamber deputy Burks moved interpellation, asking whether the government was prepared to assist other countries in their efforts to counteract the depreciation in silver.

SOUTHWARK ON FIRE.

Carrying a General Cargo and about Fifty Passengers.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 5.—The International Navigation Company's steamship Southwark, which left her dock at the foot of Fulton street, North River, Wednesday afternoon bound for Antwerp, with a general cargo and fifty passengers, was sighted on fire at two o'clock this morning.

She displayed the signal of fire among her cargo. Unless the fire gains a rapid and unexpected headway she will reach port safely.

Deaths Roll Today.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

New Orleans, Nov. 5.—The community is shocked over the announcement of seven deaths from yellow fever this morning. Five of these have been expected, the physicians having given them up. Only two cases are reported and business is booming. Orders are pouring in on the merchants, owing to raising the quarantine as all places since frosts occurred. By next week it is expected there will be no more new cases.

Four Hundred Million Dollars.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 5.—Shares in American railroad to the value of fifty-seven million dollars have been sent back to this country from Europe during the last six months, in an effort to provide for the enormous adverse balance of merchandise trade, which will reach the record figures this calendar year of four hundred million dollars in favor of the United States.

When Jack Meets Jack.

By wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 5.—The Board of health announces that all danger of yellow fever is at an end. As a result of the recent frosts in this vicinity no new cases have been contracted. All quarantine restrictions, except in a few of the Gulf Coast cities, have been lifted.

One Among Many.

A special train of six cars pulled out from the depot this morning about a half hour ahead of the regular train to carry the three hundred Normal girls to Winston to see the sights. It must have been a jolly crowd. It was reported on good authority that H. E. C. Bryant, of the Charlotte Observer was on the train, being the only man aboard. Good bye, Red Buck.

Detachment No. 2.

The noon train today carried quite a number of Greensboro people to help swell the visiting crowds in the Twin-City. Among them were Miss Lula Brown, Dr. J. T. Johnson, D. Schenck, Jr., and wife, G. S. Bradshaw and many others.

There are two new houses being built out on the street between East Market and the A. & M. College.

TRAIN ROBBERS' BOLD WORK.

Hold Up Passengers on Buffalo Express in City Limits.

Litchfield, Ill., Nov. 3.—Last night as the Buffalo, New York and Boston limited on the Wabash, due here at 9:48 o'clock, pulled out, two men without masks boarded the chair car and at the point of cocked revolvers demanded the passengers to give up their valuables. After going through the chair car, which was done at a lively rate, the robbers pulled the bell cord and the train stopped and the robbers got off, running east on 3d street and disappearing as the train moved on. The robbers got between $70 and $80 and a gold watch.

A YARN FROM PANAMA.

It Records the Purchase by England of the Panama Canal.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 4.—The officers of the flagship Imperieuse, which arrived today, have brought a story from southern Pacific waters that the British Government has purchased the Panama Canal, and a vessel of the fleet will soon arrive there to take possession.

GENERAL CLINGMAN'S FUNERAL.

His Body Escorted to the Cemetery By Confederate Veterans.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Concord, N. C. Nov. 5.—General Thomas L. Clingman was buried from the Episcopal church here today at 10 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rector Davis.

The remains of the distinguished North Carolinian were escorted to the cemetery by a body of confederate veterans. A large number of people attended the funeral and burial.

Weyler Was On Board.

By Cable To THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, Nov. 5.—A dispatch from Havana says that the steamship Montserrat has returned to Cuba in consequence of a mishap to her engines. General Weyler was aboard, having embarked for Spain.

Facts Worth Studying.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $328,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state. What better investment can the public make than by upholding an institution like this?

FRIDAY, NOV. 5, 1897.

You can get the telegraphic news twelve hours earlier in THE TELEGRAM than in any paper that gets into Greensboro, and for four dollars a year less.

Mr. Hanna has again demonstrated his persuasiveness on a close finish.

The returns from Kansas do not seem to have changed the result materially in New York.

Mr. Gorman can no longer sing "Maryland, My Maryland." The ownership has changed hands.

How charmingly naive is Mr. Hanna's declaration, "They tell me I am elected." Wholly in the hands of his friends, you know.

The new note to the United States that Spain is drafting shows that she still has an abiding faith in the efficacy of vocal variations.

Five million dollars is a pretty fair price for being rescued from a horrid prison. It is hardly probable that Father Cisneros will object.

New York papers have very prudently refrained from asking the Governor of North Carolina what he thinks of the situation. His reply would be sent collect.

Between watching sealers in Bering Sea and suspected filibusters off the Atlantic coast, Uncle Sam seems to have only a limited amount of time to bestow on his own business.

Bourke Cochran is said to get $2,500 for each speech he makes in a campaign. That accounts for much of his eloquence. A man whom $2,500 an hour would not inspire would be a freak, indeed.

H. O. Havemeyer is reported to have appendicitis. Our newly made American millionaires are all trying to get aristocratic. The Havemeyers will negotiate an alliance with some impoverished wearer of a coronet next.

The death of General Thomas L. Clingman removes from the stage another of the old time leaders who, in their day, helped to make a name for the state. A soldier, a scholar and a statesman, he is worthy of a green memory in the hearts of his people.

The report of good work on county roads is most gratifying. Bill Nye once said that "the roads in North Carolina run up and down the hills until it rains when they all slip down in the hollow." There was a good deal of sad truth in it and it will be a bright day for the county when she is traversed by well graded roads.

The Lincoln Republican League, composed of negroes, as organized in Raleigh, seems to have gone the way of most colored meetings—ended in a row. The negro scarcely need expect the recognition for which he is clamoring until he learns to act in concert. He has been the pliant tool of the Republican party for thirty-five years; he will be its tool for thirty-five more years if he continues along present lines. He meets and shouts and fights between whiles, but when it comes to voting he never has the courage to break away from the party that has dominated him. He fancies he is free; in reality he is a political slave, bound hand and foot and lacking the courage to even try seriously to break his bonds. The time to protest is just before election; the place to act is at the ballot box; the way to act is not cuffing and kicking one another in conventions. The white men of the state will respect the negro as a race only when he shows himself possessed of the qualities that command respect.

A dispatch, crowded out of yesterday's paper, stated that the Courier-Journal, of Louisville, Ky., declares that it will "no longer oppose free silver, but will hereafter support the democratic party." We are inclined to think there is some mistake about it. If true it means very little. The Courier-Journal is an excellent newspaper, but it will be years before it will regain its former prestige. It has "compromised with dishonor" more than once.

General News in a Nutshell.

It is said that the most remarkable collection of jewels in the world is possessed by Mrs. Leland Stanford, and is valued at $2,000,000.

John Morgan, who killed Mrs. Mary Green, her son James and her daughter Mary in Jackson county, West Virginia is being kept hid in the woods to prevent lynching.

George Pangbourne, proprietor of the Buck Pond Hotel at Rochester New York, shot and killed Louis Karle as the result of a quarrel over a game of cards, yesterday, and then committed suicide by shooting himself.

George Peacock, the gravedigger at Gillingham, near Chatham England, has just died, at the age of 75. He had held the position of grave digger for thirty-seven years, and during that period had buried over twelve thousand persons. This, counting Sunday as a rest day, as in other occupations, makes an average of over one a day for thirty-seven years.

THE MAJOR GOT THE MONEY.

Negotiated a Loan in Philadelphia for the D. & C. Railway.

A Washington special to the Charlotte Observer says: Maj. Wm. A. Guthrie, attorney for the Durham & Charlotte Railroad, and former Populist candidate for Governor of North Carolina, arrived in Washington tonight from Philadelphia, where he had been to assist in negotiating a loan sufficient for completing his line. He was quite successful and the road will be constructed as rapidly as possible. As an evidence that business is improving and capital is loosening up, he says that his company found no difficulty in borrowing all the money needed on 5 per cent. bonds, whereas six months ago he could not negotiate at a rate lower than 6. While not engaged in gold mining, Maj. Guthrie says that capital is steadily coming into North Carolina for the development of gold-bearing property. There are now something like 100 mines being operated.

Married, But That's All.

The Greenville (S. C.) News says: "Mamie Harris and James Miles, colored, were married by Rev. H. B. Browne at the Methodist parsonage Sunday night. The ordeal was a particularly harassing one to Miles because of the bride's reluctance to join hearts and partner with him after the preacher had requested them to stand up and be 'spliced.' She declared with tears and protestations that she couldn't possibly marry Miles since the electric lights had revealed his countenance shining with Ethiopian happiness. Miles implored, protested and in the presence of the puzzled minister did some of the most desperate wooing that mortal man ever heard. At last the fears of the colored damsel began to melt away in the fervent heat of her lover's ardor and with blushing cheeks and timid smile she announced her readiness to say 'I will.' The preacher told them to join hands and in the presence of quite a number of colored friends they were made one and inseparable."

Issue of Gold Notes.

Havana, Nov. 3.—According to a dispatch from Madrid, the Spanish government intends to enter into a contract with the Bank of Spain, at Havana, under which the bank will undertake the management of the Cuban treasury, the lottery and other public financial concerns of the island. It is understood that the bank will make a new issue of gold notes, to the amount of $100,000,000, and that these notes will be received by the government in payment of taxes of every class, including custom house duties. The government silver bills, under this arrangement, will be withdrawn. It is expected that Senor Martos Garu will be appointed Governor of the Province of Santa Clara.

AFTER TEN YEARS.

A Brief History of One of Our Best Grocery Firms.

Ten years ago M. Vuncannon began business on a very small scale, in the old wooden building standing on the site where Clegg's bakery now is. His store room was about ten feet wide, and here he conducted his little business until the building was burned about a year later.

He then moved to the southside of the railroad, on South Elm street, and gradually his business grew until two years ago he erected the brick building now occupied by his firm, a picture of which we give below:

At this writing the firm of Vuncannon & Co. is doing a thriving grocery business with a good patronage, carrying a full and complete stock. They believe in the virtue of printer's ink and by judicious advertising and fair and honest dealing are making rapid strides.

WALLACE BROS. IN TROUBLE.

Must Show a Clean Bill of Health Before They Can Enter Columbia.

The Wallace Bros. shows that skipped Charlotte on account of the $200 tax are having a hard time of it in South Carolina. These shows are billed to appear in Columbia next week, which is fair week.

The board of health of Charleston has notified the Columbia board of health that these shows are spreading measles and diphtheria. In Charleston there were no cases of either of these diseases before the circus appeared, but now an epidemic of both prevails. It is thought that if this report is true there will be some trouble about the show getting into Columbia.

The board of health says that the circus people will have to show a clean bill of health else they will be quarantined.—Charlotte News.

FELL INTO THE LAKE.

Nephew of Nick Young Loses His Life While Giving a Show.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—"Professor" Stewart Young, a nephew of Nick Young, President of the National Baseball League, an aeronaut who has been making daily balloon ascensions from the Winter Circus on Wabash avenue, lost his life today. This afternoon he made the ascent as usual, and the balloon drifted due east. He failed to get his parachute loose in time to descend, and the airship collapsed and fell into the lake. The life-saving crew at the north pier hastened to the rescue, but did not reach Young in time to save his life.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experienced with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Are You Subject to Attacks of COLIC?

If So, There is No Need to Suffer.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy

WILL CURE YOU

For several years I had been subject to severe attacks of cramp colic. Sometimes they would last me an hour and hardly a week passed that I did not have several attacks. I tried everything that was suggested, but found no relief. During these attacks the muscles of the arm and leg were terribly drawn and the whole body was cramped. I was advised to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, which gave me relief at once, but not until I had taken two dozen bottles was I entirely cured. It was eight years ago since I took the remedy, and I have not had a touch of the trouble since.

Walter and Chas. Mendenhall who have been very low with fever are both improving. This is good news to their many friends.

John L. Currie, ex-sheriff of Moore county who has been here a day or two to see some of our nearby nurserymen about purchasing a large lot of fruit-trees, returned to Carthage today.

We were informed to-day by Dr. McIver that President Andrews, of Brown University, will appear soon in the course of lectures being given at the State Normal and Industrial College.

Yes, yes, many a fellow can go out and knock the wall-eyed stuffin' out of the other fellow, but he's not strong enough to bring in a scuttie of coal—and speaking of coal reminds us that Cunningham Bros., coal dealers, changed their advertisement today.

Any one standing at the junction of Church and Lindsay streets now can see what a grand view will be furnished when the opening of Summit Avenue has been completed. The house formally occupied by Mr. Ellet is being moved today.

The old windows, and in fact the whole front of the store room at the McAdoo House recently occupied by Blaylock & White, is being torn out and will be replaced by plate glass front and vestibule entrance. The whole of South Elm street is putting on an appearance of which any city might be proud.

HE SWINDLED A FARMER.

Col. Garland Webb Breaks up a Smooth Game.

The smooth and oily citizen will follow the shows and the fairs, and of course he is here. Last night about 10 o'clock some one reported to Col. Webb that one of the light-fingered set had cleaned a farmer for $10 while the farmer looked on. The Colonel at once hastened to the scene, which he found located in the tent where the fat and lean woman stay. There was a man, a mystic box, a deck of cards and a few other things, and the swindler was busy plying his trade. Col. Webb scattered the cards to the forewinds, kicked the life out of the mystic box and demolished the other parts of the outfit. He then notified the man to vacate, which he did without delay. The man who runs the show claimed to know nothing of the scheme, but the Colonel notified him that there would be thunder in the clouds if he allowed such a fellow to shelter under his tent again.—Winston Journal.

On To Winston.

The reception room and platform were crowded to overflowing this morning, and they were all going to the Winston Fair. Greensboro will be well represented. Among the number were noticed: Mrs. G. S. Bradshaw; Calvin McAdoo; Miss Halthcock and sister; Master Thomas Beall and Thornwell Witherspoon; Misses Mozelle Andrews and Jennie and Tillie Tatum; Miss Minnie Reid; Howard Gardner; Misses Hattie Watlington and Lucy Coffin.

Too Strong to Carry Coal.

Many a man who is strong enough to play golf all day, or "hold out" a hundred pounds finds a scuttie of coal too heavy to lift. The trouble is that a great deal of coal is full of slate. Slate is heavy and it won't burn. We sell coal that's all coal. A lump of it is lighter than a lump of slatey coal and there's a heap more heat in it.

Headquarters for NEW GOODS at Hinkle Bros'.

We have bought our stock for spot cash, which means Bargains that we can give to our customers. We cordially invite you to call and look through our stock. We will make you prices to please.

Very Respectfully,

Hinkle Bros.,
110 West Market St.

C. M. Vanstory & Co., The Home of Fashion.

Men of fashion find our stock replete with nobbiest importations. Clothes are the outward expression of your taste. "Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy, but not expressed in fancy; rich—not gaudy, for the apparel oft proclaims the man." The truth is always the strongest argument. Pleasing our patrons makes life pleasant for us.

A Good Combination:

WEAR The looks of clothing may be a temporary availment, but if good service be not with them, they'll never please you.
FIT A poor fitting garment, no matter how the material, should not be worn by an up-to-date dresser.
STYLE A suit needs this to catch the eye and aid you in appearance.
PRICE Uniting the foregoing elements in clothing to sell at prices to suit the times is just exactly what we are doing.

A Taste of Winter.

Soon you will need something heavier in the furnishing line. Remember that while summer was here we were looking after your wants. All you have to do is to come see how well we have provided for you. With us you will find everything up-to-date. Not yesterday, but today, tomorrow. Liberality and fair dealing, good merchandise and moderate prices, have been the corner-stone of our success.

Witchwork.

Those who come to us for Fall Shoes sometimes think it must be witchwork that makes it possible for us to fit them so quickly, perfectly and cheaply. Not a bit of it. It's not witchwork, but hard work, that does it.

While you were fishing and loafing and resting this summer, we were at work to get this stock in shape—which work is what worked the witchwork.

For Example:

We are offering this week: Ladies' Vici Kid, hand sewed button shoes, London toe, patent tip, B, C, D and E width, at $3.50, worth $5.00.

Ladies' cloth top button or lace shoes, patent tip, com. toe, C, D and E widths, sizes 1 to 7, at $2.50. This shoe would be cheap at $3.50.

We have a full line of Felt Slippers for men and women.
